

A WOMAN'S WORK

Hide the remote under the couch
Forget to take the laundry out
Got no clean shirts for tomorrow
Good luck in the finding the keys to your car

Buy alcohol free beer for the Superbowl
Serve your mash potatoes cold
Just happen to lose one sock from each pair
Exchange your hair gel with Nair
It's all so easily taken for granted
Just the other day I caught you red handed
Now at your expense I'll have some fun
Cause a woman's work is never done

Oooh you're the one fore me
Oooh but don't mess with me

Buy decaf when you need the perk
Crash your Mac while you're at work
Forget to write the check, bike payment's behind
Tangle up your fishing lines
Drop your favorite CDs on gravel
You see I think you've developed some nasty habits
The end of the first round has rung
But a woman's work is never done

Instead of talking I'll sit and pout
Let your GQ mag run out missed the bid on your ebay thing
Erased your score on your favorite game
Didn't check the oil, the car's out of gas
Give you a couple more honeydo tasks
Don't underestimate me hon'
Cause a woman's work is never done
