

BEAUTIFUL THING

Well I said a prayer and dreamed of you
I said a prayer and dreamed of you
God keep me till the morning light
Cause everything's gonna be alright
I said a prayer and dreamed of you
I said a prayer and it came true

I say Love is a beautiful thing

I hear the things you can not say
I hear the things you can not say
The past the present and the scars
And wishes made on falling stars
I hear the things you can not say
I hear them and don't turn away

Love is a beautiful thing
It'll make you dance and make you sing
Your heart can fly like it has wings
Love is beautiful thing

I wasn't very practiced in the art of letting go
Living the moment biding to the ebb and flow
Leaves drifting on the waters of the stream
