

Nothing Compares

The minutes pass like days
Sunset's just a haze
Autumn leaves are shades of gray

The blood moon's on the rise
But it just passes by
We both know it's just a waste

Cause nothing compares to how I feel
When I'm in your arms
Nothing compares to how I feel

I walk along the beach
The water laps my feet
Infinite beauty is just a blur

And when you're next to me
My heart skips a beat
And you don't even say a word

Cause nothing compares to how I feel
When I'm in your arms
Nothing compares to how I feel

I guess you'll never see
The way that you get to me
When you flash that pretty smile
And when you're sleeping late
I gaze at your handsome face
Sometimes I can't believe that you're mine
