

SEVEN YEARS

The sky is getting darker
Something isn't clear
Fairy tales don't last forever
The final page is near

But who is this cloud
That took my sun away ?
It's hurting me so badly
To see our story is ending that way

Seven seconds, you caught my eyes
Seven minutes, you stole my heart
Seven weeks, we couldn't live apart
Seven years and now you're breaking my heart

Don't laugh at my suspicions
Pretending they're not true
Maybe it's intuition
I think we are through
It's no use trying
To love someone like you
It's no use dying
I will get over you
